rebels were killed.

No meeting of the Kitty League

The Bath Tub Trust is not yet out of hot water. In federal court at Detroit its submission to the jury has been ordered, in spite of the motion to dismiss.

All but one of the 46 dynamiters were aaigned at Indianapolis and pleaded not guilty. Andrew S. Kavanagh of Springfield, Ill., was excused from being present, because he is expecting a visit of the stork at his house.

Charles E. Sapp, the only real "boss" who ever dominated the Republican party in Louisville and Jefferson county, died suddenly in St. L. last yesterday morning. Sapp was one of the shrewdest leaders who ever mustered forces for a political contest.

New Mexico's first legislature is in session at Santa Fe for a three month session. The Republicans have a two-thirds majority in the house and will name the United States senators to be chosen. This will be the first important business of the session.

J. N. Harris, former sheriff of Graves county, has compromised a shortage of $10,393.71 in his accounts by paying the county $7000. S. R.
Douthitt also paid his small balance of $348.91. W. L. Brand will resist the payment of the $19,165.82 claimed against him.

The new school suffrage bill allows women to vote "at all elections of school trustees and other school officers required to be elected by the people." If the County Superintendents are "school officers" women will participate in the general county election next year.

They have found the "Hou-dawg" song in an old German scrip-book printed in 1499, under the title "The Lay of The Dog." Here are the words in the original German: Jedes mal ich ins Dorfchen komm Stoessen die Jungens mein Hund herum.
Mir ist egal was sonst sie thun—Sie dürfen nicht stoessen mein Hund herum.

The literal translation is as follows:
Every time I come into the little village
The boys knock my dog around.
It's all the same to me what else they do—
They must not knock my dog around.

Stopped Those Pains

Copper Hill, Va.—Mrs. Ida Conner, of this place, says, "For years, I had a pain in my right side, and was very sick with womanly troubles.
I tried different doctors but could get no relief. I had given up all hope of ever getting well, I took Cardui, and it relieved the pain in my side, and now I feel like a new person. It is a wonderful medicine." Many women are completely worn-out and discouraged on account of some womanly trouble. Are you?
Take Cardui, the woman's tonic.
Its record shows that it will help you. Why wait? Try it today.
Ask your druggist about it.

Negro Chicken.

What next in the chicken business?
A few days ago, while killing and picking thousands of chickens, preparing them for the Eastern markets, one of the employees of the Naive Spillers Produce Company, of this city, discovered a chicken with a jet black skin. The bird is the first ever known to have been found with a skin of this color, and has been carefully preserved in alcohol.
The question arises, whether a black or white hen laid the egg that produced the bird with the black skin?
The specimen will be sent to the Smithsonian Institution.—Nashville

The Men Who Succeed.

As heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To ail is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order.
"Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. E. Allen, Sylvania, Ga., "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

Suicide Pact.

Chicago, March 13.—Apparently fulfilling a suicide agreement, Adolph Gerlink, a carpenter, and his sweetheart, Frances Soucek, went to a room in the home of Gerlink's sister last night and turned on the gas. They were found dead in each other's arms clad in the garments they had worn to a dance.

Many Driven From Home.

Every year in many parts of the country, thousands are driven from their homes by coughs and lung diseases. Friends and business are left behind for other climates, but this is costly and not always sure. A better way—the way of multitudes—is to use Dr. King's New Discovery and cure yourself at home. Stay right there, with your friends, and take this safe medicine. Throat and lung troubles find quick relief and health returns. Its help in coughs, colds, grip, croup, whooping cough and sore lungs make it a positive blessing, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Beneficent Scheme.

Mr. Spotsch (at the club)—Doing anything for your employees this winter?
Mr. Mayhew—Yes, I'm going to give every man, woman and child in my shops a pleasant surprise next month.
Mr. Spotsch—Glad to hear it.
What's the scheme?
Mr. Mayhew—You know the month comes in on Thursday, and this is a leap year. Well, I'm going to make Thursday the pay-day for a few weeks, so they'll have five paydays in February. It'll tickle 'em most to death.

A Fine Model.

"It is doubtful," said the author of entertaining sea stories, "whether a man ought to attempt to write things outside of his personal observation." "But take your own case. You are writing of pirates, yet you never saw one."
"No. I never saw one. But when I want to write a good description of a pirate, I shut my eyes and think of my publisher."

What We Never Forget.

According to science, are the things associated with our early home life, such as Bucken's Arnica Salve, a mother or grandmother used to cure our burns, boils, scalds, sores, skin eruptions, cuts, sprains or bruises.
Forty years of cures prove its merit.
Unrivaled for piles, corns or cold sores. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

ONE MORE WONDERFUL ROAD

Great Highway Through the Dolomites Connects Lake District of Italy and Bavaria.

In May, 1910, the new highway through the Dolomites, running from Bolzen to Toblach, was finally thrown open. It is a miracle of able engineering and serves as connecting link between the Lake district of Italy and Bavaria.

Or, if one has large cities for one's objective points, between Milan or Venice and Munich. It is worth trying, says a writer in Harper's Weekly, to convey an impression of the magnificent scenery, the picturesque and wonderful country through which this highroad, as smooth and perfect as Riveride Drive, since the recent repairs, leads one.

Bolzen on the south and Toblach on the north are the entrance gates to the great, gaunt Dolomites. It was a burgher of Bolzen, one Heinrich Kun-ter, who first obtained permission to hew a road from the Brenner Pass to Bolzen. He began the undertaking in the year 1314 A. D. and it is to be hoped that his happy ghost rejoices today in the perfect fulfillment of his idea.

The one disappointment to the motorist on this great road is that the short cut from Bolzen to Vigo di Fassa, leading through the lovely Eggen-thal and past the Karer See, is closed to motors. For those who can foot it it is worth while to bid adieu farewell for a day or so and loiter through the wonderful valley, making the ascent of the lonely Karer, going up between the gloomy chalk cliffs, along steep ridges, looking far away over the valley and the rolling mountains beyond, and so learning really to know and feel these gaunt ghosts of mountains that have earned by their whiteness and ready reflections the title "Mountains of Light."

LAW TO MUZZLE ROOSTERS

In Los Angeles They Mustn't Crow Before 7 in the Morning, if Ordinance Passes.

Los Angeles roosters must get together on their crowing. The city attorney has been asked to draft an ordinance which will make it unlawful for roosters to crow earlier than 7 o'clock in the morning, Pacific time.
There must be more unity of effort among the chanticleers—less of individual endeavor at any old hour of the night that the rooster feels like crowing.

Mrs. Genevieve Dalrymple, of 2359 East Seventh street, in taking her complaint to the city council, merely acted as messenger for many thousands who are unable to sleep because of crowing roosters, who start about midnight and keep it up until morning.

"Leave it to the city attorney. He will find some way to fix it," said Chairman Andrews of the legislation committee. With this meager instruction, John W. Shenk, the city attorney, started somewhat on this order:
"The mayor and city council of the city of Los Angeles do ordain that it shall be unlawful for roosters to crow between the hours of 7 p. m. and 7 a. m. All roosters found guilty of violation of this ordinance shall be sentenced to be the principal ingredient of a popple."

However, the difficulty of enforcing an ordinance worded as outlined was apparent to the city attorney, and he will prepare a draft of one along some other line. It has been suggested that the roosters be muzzled, or that some sort of an operation on their throats be performed so that their exultant efforts may end in dismal gurgles. However, what will be done is still uncertain.—Los Angeles Tribune.

Bravery of the Cree Indians.

Many episodes of noble self-sacrifice might be related about the Crees, though they themselves never mention them. The stoical Indian woman does her duty and speaks of her life only when questioned concerning it.
Occasionally one is found who will assert her woman's rights. I once saw a stalwart squaw chasing her husband around and around the wigwam, brandishing an ax and threatening to kill him, a feat she was quite capable of putting into execution. Upon another occasion an Indian asked me to "speak good things" to his wife as he was "ill used." Usually, however, the women are patient sufferers, willing slaves and beasts of burden. Widows are eagerly sought in marriage, owing to the fact that they inherit their dead husbands' hunting grounds. Frequently a young man is mated to a woman of twice his age.—Wide World Magazine.

Jewish Population.

In all the world there are 11,483,876 Jews. Of this number 8,576,299 are in Europe and 1,880,579 in America.
The Russian empire has 5,215,805, the United States following with 1,800,000.
The city of Warsaw leads Russia with 220,000, as compared with New York's 905,000. In Chicago the Jewish population numbers 98,000, while Philadelphia leads Chicago by 2,000. In New York are found one-thirteenth part of the entire Jewish race. Every fourth person in New York is a Jew. It may be said that the Jews in London number only some 150,000.

GLUCK AND EMPEROR JOSEPH

Composer Marahly Told Austrian Monarch That Archduke Sang
His Music Wretchedly.

Gluck, the composer, was not of the sort of men of whom courtiers are made. One day he attended, at the court at Vienna, a concert at which the Emperor Joseph II. and one of his archdukes sang a fragment from one of Gluck's compositions. Naturally enough, the imperial artists glanced at the composer to see how he was impressed by the honor they were doing him. They were shocked to observe that he was making a series of extraordinary and significant grimaces. The emperor stopped and inquired whether he and the archduke were not singing the bit according to Gluck's idea of how it should be done.
"My idea!" exclaimed Gluck. "Why, sire, I am the poorest walker in the world, but I would vastly rather take a walk of six leagues than be forced to hear a composition of my own interpreted in such a way as that."

Joseph II. was brave enough to take no notice of the criticism, but the court were quite convinced that if such a reproach had been addressed to the Czar Nicholas the composer would have prosecuted his musical studies from that time forth under the unfavorable surroundings of the Siberian mines.

It was the composer Weigl, a man of very different temperament from Gluck, who, when the Emperor Francis Joseph played the first violin in the performance of one of his overtures, threw himself at the monarch's feet, and exclaimed: "Ah, sire. Will your majesty benignly condescend to grant my prayer, and favor me once more with a most gracious F sharp?"

BOOKSTAND SENT BY MAIL

Contains Forty Volumes of Shakespe-peare, But Whole Package Weighs Only Pound and a Half.

A revolving bookstand, six inches high, containing the complete works of Shakespeare in forty volumes, the whole weighing only one and one-half pounds, was the unique package which passed through the registry division of the postoffice yesterday.

The tiny volumes themselves measured two and one-half inches, and were about one-eighth of an inch in thickness. Although the print was extremely fine, it could be easily read.

The case was surmounted with a small marble bust of the Avon bard, and was addressed to Longview, Tex., from Glasgow, England.

The parcel was opened by Hans Glatta, special customs examiner of mail importations, who is inclined to believe the expressed valuation of the publisher, $11.50, is too low, and a new appraisement will be made.

The miniature books were bound and printed in every detail after the fashion of editions of ordinary size, with gilt print and leather binding.
The articles attracted so much attention that Henry Smith, in charge of the registry division, exhibited it to the corps of women, under Mrs. T.
J. Atkins, who were selling hospital tags in the postoffice. The device was thereupon declared "Just too cute" no less than fifty times.—St.
Louis Globe-Democrat.

Shakespeare Ruled Out.

One by one our tottering idols fall.
The Shakespeare convention has just been given the coup de grace by a literary club out west, which, after a spirited debate, ruled that William of Stratford is "licentious, unclean, objectionable," and should be displaced in study classes by the chaste G. B.
Shaw.

Mr. Shaw may well be alarmed sometimes to find his teasing banter about Shakespeare and mock tintrumping of himself as Shakespepeare's superior taken so very solemnly.

Why cannot people understand, or take the trouble to understand (even people in "literary clubs"), that Shaw the persiflage is behind the comic mask the genuine lover of Shakespe-peare, whose protest as dramatic critic was against, not genuine and intelligent admiration for Shakespe-peare, but the conventional and sham "bardolatry" and the meretricious renderings which forgot—that "the play's the thing" and smother it in tinsel and rose pink.—Milwaukee Sen-inel.

Fortune Cast Up by the Sea.

A shoal of sperm whales, numbering 37 in all, were stranded on a small sandy island named Perkins island, on the northwest coast of Tasmania, recently. A syndicate was formed to exploit these unfortunate cetaceans, and nearly every whale was found to contain ambergris, a valuable substance greatly in demand amongst perfumers and others. The shareholders expect to realize a profit of between $50,000 and $75,000—a nice little sum to be cast up by the sea.— Wide World Magazine.

Professional Nurse as Wife.

Sir James Crichton-Brown of London, England, says a nurse makes an ideal wife, and he urges young men in selecting helpmates to consider first the quality and character of the nurses whom they know. He says that a training in a hospital fits a woman finely for home life. She is taught the nutritive value of foods, learns first aid and understands thoroughly how to care for children, and is able to act in emergencies.
